1 served on Defendants until October 23, 2014. The Summons
2 was not served within fourteen (14) days of issuance and,
3 as a result, the Summons was stale when finally issued.

4 The Court informed Plaintiffs that the Clerk of Court
5 would issue a new summons, which would need to be served on 6 Defendants. The Clerk of Court issued a new Summons ("Second 7 Summons") on February 4, 2015 (Doc. 13). The Court
8 informally mentioned that Plaintiffs would have fourteen (14)
9 days from the issuance of the Second Summons to serve
10 Defendants. The Court's statement, the product of a 11 momentary lapse of memory, was incorrect. After the 12 conclusion of the hearing the Court recalled the amendment to 13 Rule 7004(e), which took effect on December 1, 2014. The 14 Court would like to call Plaintiffs' attention to the amended
15 rule and correct any misconception caused by the Court's 16 statements at the hearing. Under the amended Rule 7004(e), 17 Plaintiffs have seven (7) days from the issuance of the 18 Second Summons, which took place on February 4, 2015, to 19 serve Defendants with the Second Summons and the Complaint.
